Why do we go have to School?

Reasons for School

Everybody have to school when they're young, right? This answer is obviously true because starting 5 you go to pre-school and 6 to kindergarten. Well, it seems to take forever to get out of school but that's not true. Time really goes by faster than we thought. Of course school is for learning and education, and it's also good for getting a job. Learning new things can be a bit challenging but you'll get through it. If you are stuck in a subject, you should either ask your parents, teachers, tutors, or whoever is available for help. I know a lot of people dislike to go to school because of learning. Well don't worry, everyone have to. You are not the only who needs to go to school. There are million of people out there who feels the same way. Anyways, learning in school can be fun by doing some fun projects in class. School can also be full of entertainment by the events they have at school such as a festival, dances, party, etc. There are more reasons out there for school than just on this article. Good luck finding them!

Friends

Friends are almost the number one thing that makes people go to school. It's great to have friends to not to feel lonely, in classes that you take. Friends sometimes look out for you and help you, in case something happens. They can be trustworthy and tells you how they feel about you. They are people that could know you forever as you get older. Without friends, you will feel left out of the group. It's ok to have at least one friend but more is better. Friends will have different personalities so be aware about what they do. Sometimes they can be mean, selfish, and careless. Choose your friends wisely and don't pick the ones that could drive you into trouble.

College

It's optional but is not required to go to College. People may or may not choose to go to college for personal reasons. If you go to College, you might be better than the people who doesn't go to College, so go to College! College can be somewhat become hard but, as you pull through the stress of the work, you will succeed greatly. If you stay in college after 4 years and earn good grades, you'll get your 4 year degree, which you could stay in college much longer. Success in learning is the number one priority for doing great in life.
